

You can use your words to create your life; you can use your words to paint a picture. We can use our words to create our world. Oftentimes, what happens is a lot of people tire out in speaking. But keep sowing the seed; it will come to pass.

Mark 11:23

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

It says you shall have whatsoever you say. You can start again; you can have a fresh start. Start it again with your words. You can come back again; you can have a fresh start.

Lamentations 3:22-23

It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

23 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

The fact that you can sleep and wake up in the morning shows you can have a fresh start; you can begin again. It doesn't matter how deep the issue is; you can come out of it. No matter the impossibilities, you can come out with your words. Write down things you want to sow as seeds.

As a believer, you can begin again; you can start afresh, here is how.

Genesis 1:1-3
In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the Earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the spirit of God moves upon the face of water. 2 And the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. 3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

The Bible is a book of comebacks. There is a way the bible started for our understanding. By paying close attention, you see that it seems like a comeback from chaos, a comeback to order. Let’s start with the text above. The best way for us to understand it is that everything was perfect, but then we see verse 2, and we see that there was confusion and what seems like chaos.

The Bible introduces us to a recreation story, not just a creation story but a RECREATION story. Let’s analyze further....
Genesis 1:1; we saw a creation
Genesis 1:2; there was chaos, confusion, a problem
Genesis 1:3; shows a pattern of how to begin again
In verse 3, he started again. How was that done? His words So, to those who have been or are broken-hearted, disillusioned, discontented, fed-up with society, have fallen so badly, or think Christianity is not for you, you can’t serve God or please him. No matter what you have done, the idea of a comeback is not merely idealistic; it is very much practicable. You can come back again, you can begin again, you can start again!

The scriptures open up with a picture of chaos, a problem, an issue (Genesis 1:1-2). It was a situation that needed a change. The situation of the earth needed a change. We must understand that this is God having to face a problem, and that was with the whole earth. He created the earth, and then there was chaos. But what did God do about his problem? He said (seen in Genesis 1 verse 3) Based on this, we must understand how to start again, and that is with our words. God uttered his word to start again. He said let there be light. He said! This was the pattern seen throughout the scripture when referring to God’s intervention with humanity. One story that would come to mind would be the one of Abraham. He had a dilemma, but yet his situation was resolved. Romans 4:17
(as it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

What does God do? He calleth thing
God’s attitude is that “he calls.” Many of us may say that is God, but I don’t have to. But we must see a pattern to exemplify. God told Abraham that his name would change, and he called himself what God called him. As a believer, we must call ourselves what God has called us. The reason why many people are not living righteous today is because they are calling themselves what they are not, a false identity. The reason many of us do not live right today as Christians and believers is that some still have the mindset that they are sinners. They aren’t calling themselves righteous. We have got to call ourselves what God has called us.

Romans 4:18-21
Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: 20 he staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; 21 and being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

When God called him from Abram to Abraham, he believed it. He became the father of all nations because of that. When Abraham saw the deadness of his body, and he also saw the issue of Sarah’s womb, what did Abraham do? He put God’s word on his lips. He knew what God had said about him, and he confessed his identity. He called those things that be not as though they were. Therefore, Abraham’s fruitlessness was resolved by words. It can be implied that Abraham spoke his way out of being fruitless.

There are people in life who speak negatively. They think they have never had good luck, and everything turns out bad for them. The solution to come out of that dun geon is by words. If you have lived life not seeing a result, you can start again, and you will come out with your words. Abraham came out of the fruitfulness by words. He called things that be not as though they were. It ended up happening. He became the father of all nations. Abraham spoke his way out of fruitlessness.

You can speak your way out of any situation. What God did when he saw chaos was to say let there be light. He saw darkness and unbelief upon the face of the earth; He called things. God began the earth by using his words. Abraham and Sarah also came out of the situation with their words. You might have been barren in aspects of your life, but you can begin again, you can start afresh with your words.

How did we get saved?

When we see a sinner, we preach the gospel, and it is done via words. What we preach is the word of faith because when preached, it inspires faith in the heart of the hearers.
Romans 10:8-14
But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; 9 that if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation. 11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. 12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. 13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. 14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

The sinner needs to hear the words of a preacher, and those words are words of faith that go deep into their hearts and change their lives. Why people are atheist and agnostic today is because they heard something. That is to show that no word is neutral. How a sinner receives the gospel is via words. Words have the power to change and transform lives. If words can transform the lives of others, they can transform yours as well. That shows you can talk your way out of unfavorable situations. Whether it’s substance abuse, addiction, or other things, you must keep speaking God’s word over your life.

Many times, in difficult situations, our first response is to speak how we feel, and most times, it is always negative. When we are doubtful, we tend to speak it out. We must understand that our words are powerful. Doubt, fears, anxiety, and worry will die unborn if they are not spoken.

Romans 10 made us understand the result of our salvation is via our words. A sinner can be saved via words. We spoke our way into our salvation because we said we believed in Jesus, we believe in the gospel. We consent to God’s power by repeating what He says. We consent to God’s power by repeating on our lips what He said about us.

The foundational truth of the born-again man is very important. They are ever-green truths. A man who is born again in the scriptures is called righteous. Imagine waking up and speaking God’s word. By doing that, you are consenting to God’s power to work in your life. The reason we have a lot of people born again, but they don’t act as such, is because all they are feeding on and hearing is contrary to what they heard when they became born again. Words are so important; this is the pattern set.

God’s intervention in any situation begins with our words. For God to come through in that issue, we must use our words. When it feels like you have sunk deep and don’t know how to come out of a situation, use your words; you will come out. Many believers are unaware of the harm and danger they cause themselves when they accept false words for themselves. Believers must not speak negative words about their lives; they must speak the word of God over everything in their lives. When you speak the word of God over your life, you are consenting to the power of God in your life. God’s intervention begins with the believer's words. Once you start to use your words, you will see God’s intervention.

Jesus taught about the import of our words
Matthew 13:18 – 20
Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. 19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. 20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;
From the text above, Jesus was teaching us how God’s supernatural influence works. It comes in seed form of words. When you sow the seed form, there is potential change and a turnaround. What you want to see happen, you start speaking it now, and you will see it come to pass. Looking at the parable of the Sower, words are a seed sown, and you can change your life by the kind of seed you sow in your life every day. You sow the seed by speaking everyday. There is nothing you cannot use words to change, absolutely nothing. Words are like seed sown, you can sow words. Just like Abraham, God told him, and he consented to it with words. Though God told you, you have to consent to it with words. In words sown, are potential for a change and a turnaround.

Do you need a fresh start?

A fresh start doesn’t mean you are starting your life all over again. It just means you are using your words to start again. There is no one who cannot start again. No matter your current situation—whether facing bad habits, addictions, setbacks, difficulties, or heartbreak, you can start fresh. God never tires of giving a fresh start.
